FAKE BALLOT BOX STORY A BOOMERANG ON ITS AUTHOR

Hon. Mr. Oliver Denounces Tactics Employed by Conservative Candidate.

Cardiff Miners Hear Minister

St. Albert Electors Cheer Mr. Oliver and Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Coal miners of Cardiff and citizens of Alberta at two meetings last night gave the Hon. Frank Oliver assurance of their vote in the election of next Tuesday by the splendid orations which they accorded both himself and his exposition of the policy of the Laurier government. The gatherings were well attended, with the result of the interior has addressed themselves throughout the country districts of the Edmonton constituency, unmistakably in favor of reciprocity, the continuation and expansion of the trade policy of the Liberal party under which Canada has been progressing in the last fifteen years, and as unmistakably opposed to the introduction of Tariff methods as the conduct of elections in the Edmonton constituency.

The minister of the treasury at 7:30 last night addressed a gathering of two hundred and fifty men at the Canadian coal mines, east of Morinville, at 9:30. He was received by the Albert citizens in the parish hall on the north bank of the Sturgeon river. The men of the west who have been the veterans of the Liberal cause with such cheer as a great body of working men can in occasion value. The other meeting at Cardiff was decided in their reception and to their exclamations was added music by the St. Albert band, which played martial air in welcome on the arrival of Mr. Oliver at the place of meeting.

What a boomerang is the fake ballot box story proving! It was clearly demonstrated at Cardiff last night that it was pointed out to the gathering for seventy-five per cent of the population of the interior belonged to the Conservative party, but those by their hands and whose income was but little in excess of their outlay on the necessities of life. Reciprocity would have the effect of reducing the cost of living by the removal of the tariff tax on food products of which Canada is the chief producer and supplier. In this way would be affected from fifty to seventy-five per cent, of the cost of living of the workingmen of Canada. And this means that it would be the best interest of the workingmen to support for seventy-five per cent of the population of the interior belonged to the Conservative party, but those by their hands and whose income was but little in excess of their outlay on the necessities of life. Reciprocity would have the effect of reducing the cost of living by the removal of the tariff tax on food products of which Canada is the chief producer and supplier.

Deceptive Slander Campaign. My Oliver denounces tactics employed by Conservative candidate in the campaign. But as his opponents were peddling certain charges around the constituency he could not afford to let them at Cardiff. He might as well allude to them in advance, although he must apologize for taking up with such a charge. He had been too anxious to hear of the real issues of the election campaign.

"The boxes which have been made of verbage," said Mr. Oliver, "the idea has been created that the return of the old order of things will bring back the Edmontons. I am sure that these thirty ballot boxes had been made by Ross Bros., that is, the firm of Ross Bros. and Sons, of Peace River, and that I was responsible, directly or indirectly, for the action taken."

For Straight Denials.

"Now, in the first place, no boxes were made by Ross Bros. In the second place no boxes were made in the Can't Drill, Laurier Men. "I can't drill," said Laurier, "but the trouble to look over the hard-headed railway men will have some compensation, and the time to drill would be received. There is enough railroading in this country to keep us busy, and we will not need to go far to find opportunities. Other men, if they had been pretty plainly intimated how the company would feel, would have been heard that he was ever exerting himself."

"While it is pretty generally felt that Laurier will be returned by a majority of the people of Alberta, the Alberta and the Hudson's Bay railway, abnormally increased trade, better roads, and more opportunities, will bring prosperity. Mr. Hill, as a shrewd business man, would like a railroad prosperity, the railway law, the railway law."

The success of the C.P.R. solicitor is not due to the fact that he is not necessary, but that an expansion of trade through reciprocity seems to promise, accordingly, we are compelled to

HOUSES CENSORED, CERTIFICATE OF MARINE ORDERS CANCELLED AND SUSPENDED.

Victoria, Sept. 14.—The certificate of Albert A. Sears, master and part owner of the steamer Sirocco, is cancelled; the certificate of John John Lester is suspended for six months, and is expected to be recalled to the German Consul, who is present in Victoria. The Sirocco is suspended for nine months, according to the finding of the court of marine inquiry handed down in the admiralty court today. The steamer was wrecked in April with a loss of twenty thousand dollars.

On the request of the captain, the finding says that harm comments on his conduct after reaching shore were omitted. The Imperial Chancellor had a long conference with the emperor at Potsdam before His Majesty's departure this evening, for the benefit of the German foreign office informants.

French Ambassador Will Present to Tomorrow.

Berlin, Sept. 14.—The French representative to Germany's court on Monroe reached Berlin this evening, and it is expected to be recalled to the German Consul, who is present in Victoria. The Sirocco is suspended for nine months, according to the finding of the court of marine inquiry handed down in the admiralty court today. The steamer was wrecked in April with a loss of twenty thousand dollars.

An examination of the various points of the reply, it is understood, will require a considerable period, and the report of the court will be delayed.

The Imperial Chancellor had a long conference with the emperor at Potsdam before His Majesty's departure this evening, for the benefit of the German foreign office informants.

Amber Aviator Injured.

Alton, N.Y., Sept. 14.—Frank Payne, an aviator from Worcester, was late last night in making a flight from the Orleans county fair grounds. Payne made his run in a short time, but the engine was not strong enough to take the air. On his second attempt he was ascending, but suddenly stopped the engine, and the biplane crashed to the ground, pinning Payne under the wreckage.

DIVISIONS END NOW—CAMPAIGN BEGINS.

Edmonton, Sept. 15.—There is a new campaign beginning, and W. F. McLean, ex-M.P. for South York, declared all credit given to him by the Liberal party last night he might as well ignore his audience against the great American party if he did not do so.

He has no right to expect the public to invade Canada if the reciprocity pact is ratified. The record brought back is one long series of triumphs in unmanliness, cruelty in action and execration. In response to the training afforded them in the old country, they took two

Who Cut the Wire of the Fake Ballot Box Exhibited by W. A. Griesbach at Thistle Rink Meeting Monday?

The origin of the fake ballot box exhibited by Mr. Griesbach at the meeting in the Thistle Rink on Monday night remains a deep and impenetrable mystery. The committee of the ballot box for use in the Edmonton electoral constituency, by their arrangement, had agreed to accept and finally disposed of the imputation that they were in any way connected with the making of illegal ballot boxes.

Edmonton, etc.—In the early morning of Saturday, Mr. Reed, manager of Ross Bros. timber shop, concerning the boxes manufactured in his department.

TO W.T. MCLELLAN:

In the matter of the fake ballot box exhibited by W. A. Griesbach at the Thistle Rink on Monday evening, September 15, 1911,

I declare that the said ballot box was made by Ross Bros. timber shop, an employe of Ross Brothers, and in whole or in part, in a simple ballot box, with vertical sides, to make thirty more "same as sample." I did not examine the box carefully, and I cannot say definitely whether the lower edge of the lid was made with separate pieces of wire, or was cut.

THE MAN WITH THE BOGUS BOX.

The one thing made clear by the ballot-fakers is that every box for use in the Edmonton constituency is properly constructed, and that the consignment of boxes made by Ross Brothers for use in the Victoria constituency were also properly constructed. That has been admitted by the shame-faced half-confessors of the newspapers supporting Mr. Griesbach; and it has been absolutely proven by the affidavits and statements of the returning officer for the Edmonton constituency, and of the firms concerned. The only fake ballot box yet discovered, therefore, is the one in the possession of Mr. Griesbach, and if any other boxes of the same construction were ordered to be made the necessary conclusion is that they were ordered by the same party or parties as ordered the box Mr. Griesbach exhibited on Monday evening. If the friends of that gentleman—or supposed friends—have gone into the business of ordering fake ballot-boxes, a possible reason is not hard to find. If by the construction of these boxes and their distribution or alleged distribution throughout the country, a basis could be laid for the story that such boxes were to be used in the elections, a blow would be struck at Mr. Oliver and at the party whose nominee he is. Well, the story has been started, and on the statement of Mr. Griesbach himself certain number of such boxes were made. Those who should know, and do know, declare that no such boxes were made under orders from the man responsible for the conduct of the elections. What, then, is the conclusion but that—if made—such boxes were made at the instigation and at the expense of the same party or parties who procured the making of the only box of the kind yet shown to the public? The net result of all the shouting has been to bring the responsibility for the existence of this box or boxes home pretty closely to Mr. Griesbach. And to this result the gentleman himself contributed very materially by his language at Morinville on Wednesday. Instead of apologizing like a man for the injury done to the returning officer of the riding and to Mr. Oliver, he sought to evade responsibility for the dirty insinuation attached to them by the quibble that he had not intended any reflection upon these gentlemen. That is too thin, altogether. His part in the plot has marked Mr. Griesbach as a gentleman of singularly trusting disposition in the reception of stories likely to injure the reputation of men who differ with him in politics, but that he was so stupid as not to know that his assertion of Monday evening was an attack upon the good name of the returning officer of the riding and of Mr. Oliver, no one will believe who is capable of believing unprejudiced facts. Who on earth could such an accusation injure, or be supposed to injure, but the man responsible for the kind of ballot-boxes sent out, and the man running as Liberal candidate? Mr. Griesbach is not so simple as he professes to be, by any manner of means. He knew who he was attacking, and knew the contemptibleness of making the attack without first taking proper means to make sure that his accusation was valid. And he now knows that it was not valid; but he has not yet apologized. Why? Why this pretence at ignorance, which nobody but a dunce would believe? The necessary conclusion is that Mr. Griesbach is standing between the scoundrel who perpetrated the trick and the public. He asserts that ballot-boxes such as he exhibited were made; the returning officer swears that no such boxes were ordered by him or delivered to him; then how would it be for Mr. Griesbach to tell us who ordered these fake boxes? He is the only man yet found with one in his possession. He ought to know where he got it. And the man he got it from should be a pretty good man to go to for information as to who ordered the other boxes of the same kind which Mr. Griesbach says were ordered. As the only man yet found with a fake ballot-box in his possession it is up to Mr. Griesbach to tell us where he got it.

SPURRING UP THE ANTIS.

The Toronto News obligingly reminds us that it is to the opposition we owe the fact that the verdict on reciprocity is called for while one-half the voters in Western Canada are muzzled—for that is what the forcing of the election before redistribution amounts to. The New's purpose, is not, of course, to bring this fact to the recollection of the people of the West, but to the lively appreciation of certain sections in the East. The aim is to impress upon the opponents of the agreement a sense of their obligations to Mr. Borden for having forced the fight under conditions to them the most favorable that could be secured or desired—and to stir them up with the cry that reciprocity must be killed now or never. The strength of this appeal lies in its truth. If reciprocity cannot be beaten now it could certainly not have been beaten after the West had been given the thirty new members to which its population entitles it. And if it is not beaten now there will be no chance of beating it in the future, for its advantages will be so general and so undeniable that any party proposing to reimpose the abolished duties will be simply inviting extinction. These are the arguments which are being used as spurs upon the opponents of the agreement. They should be equally effective in redoubling the determination of its friends. If reciprocity is so much worth fighting by the parties who are fighting it, it is well worth fighting for by everybody else.

Mr. Foster says the Antis should win provided Quebec does what he hopes it will do. What he hopes Quebec will do may be gathered from the following remarks of Mr. P. E. Blondin, Conservative candidate in Champlain constituency, and Conservative member for that constituency in the last Parliament: "The English have never done anything for the French-Canadians. We owe them nothing. The French-Canadians do not want to bother themselves about what may be said or done in the other provinces on this question of the navy. They can and must settle the questions which interest them without occupying themselves with others. Those who dismembered your fathers on the Plains of Abraham ask you to-day to go and get yourselves killed for them." Mr. Foster expresses the hope that Quebec will send to Ottawa enough members holding the views of Mr. Blondin to put Mr. Borden into office. What does the Englishman, who is being urged in the sacred name of loyalty to vote for a Borden candidate, think of his prospective bed-fellow?

The Montreal Star is sending letters to Opposition papers throughout the country offering them free a four-page supplement to be enclosed in their pre-election issues. The letter expresses the wish of Mr. Borden that the request be complied with, and instructs the proprietors of the papers to send their accounts to the Montreal Star. There is nothing new in this except the quantity of paid-for opinions it is proposed to dump onto the readers of the papers at "one fell swoop." For months these papers have been printing paid-for opinion by the yard; now they are to print it by the page; that is the whole difference. The obvious question is: who is to be made pay for this costly campaign if reciprocity is defeated? Sir Hugh Graham and the Montreal juntas are not philanthropists in politics, by any means. They do not make an outlay without counting on a prospective "come-back." The producer and consumer may judge from whom the come-back is to be secured if restriction can be made to triumph.

This is a new store brim full of new merchandise which has been gathered from the world's best sources with special reference to meeting the popular demands of this enterprising and wonderfully progressive city. that Great Britain is just about ready to put a tax on her people's food for the purpose of making the Canadian farmer prosperous. "Tariff reform" election agents have made some pretty poor guesses at the tempo and intention of the British people in recent years—and on this same question of a tax on food. To the outsider it appears that the tariff reform "movement" in Great Britain is moving in the same direction as the high tariff cause in Canada and the United States toward oblivion. On both sides of the sea, restriction has seen its best days.

Sir James Whitney would make it a criminal offence to export hay from the Dominion. That would be awkward for Sir James. His brother is a stalwart supporter of reciprocity—and presumably would take advantage of it to sell his hay in the United States. He is engaged in the hay-growing business. It would be unusual—to put it mildly—for Sir James to send the rest of his family to jail because they took a couple of dollars per ton more for their hay than they could get on the Canadian side.

A reader sends the Bulletin a picture post-card showing how Mr. Morrison, anti-candidate in Victoria constituency, is carrying on his campaign. Mr. Morrison is PLAYING THE FARMER FOR A FOOL.

Montreal Herald—it must be recognized on all sides that if defeated it will be defeated by the votes of the farmers.

If this is done in the face of the manifold temptations which interested and paid aid addressed to the returning officer, it may easily distract the eye of the farmers, taking advantage of the fact that three decades ago all Canadians supported a measure of reciprocity to try to stampede farm opinion in its favor under the extremely plausible claim that "to get the farmer to stand out in this campaign the government must stand out in this support of the political and dishonest campaign then, in deadly earnest, will they be enabled to their turn."

It may mildly surprise those at home and without debts to find that the free agricultural movement, and if reciprocity be beaten we shall press this policy, week in and week out, on the new government.

We shall press upon the Borden government the free trade and the right of the farmer to stand out in his own right. The farmer must have his right, or you but not now. "Tomorrow, when I wake up, I'll be a fool again tomorrow," promised reciprocity during fifty years. He is to force his right, and when he wakes up again tomorrow, for the first time there is the chance of his being redeemed. And if he forces it he shall not succeed. "Tomorrow, when I wake up, I'll be a fool again tomorrow," promised reciprocity for Mr. H. L. Borden doesn't give him the earth. Sir Hugh Graham will subscribe ten thousand dollars to the usual string on it to make him do so.

Farmers' parties have lacked staying power. No party can secure very many votes for the people whose cause it advances unless it "lays it wide open."

making a speech from the quarter deck of an automobile to an audience consisting of his chauffeur and what looks like a pocket gopher. Quite appropriately Mr. Morrison has his hat off. The conclusion is that he is in a very fair way to catch a bad cold.

The delegates to the Labor Congress in Calgary declared approval of the reciprocity arrangement. The delegates held, quite reasonably, that men who earn their living at productive employment have nothing to gain from the restriction of the opportunities of production.

Perhaps that fake ballot-box was one of the boudoir boxes used to pack around the Anti campaign fund. That would explain why ample means were provided for getting into it without trouble.

Election roorbacks are flying early. The latest in this constituency is that the holding of the election has been invalidated. Like the preceding yarn about the biscuit box this one is without foundation.

Mr. Bourassa is to stump for Conservative candidates in certain parts of Ontario. It is about time the alliance between Messrs. Bourassa and Borden was being again denied.

Mr. Bourassa, a poor, helpless sort of person who can be foisted by anybody if he can't stick to the game. He can't go on demanding what he wants till he gets it. The Zandrank and Zandrank and "bits of money" will teach him how; but only after he has given away the ten thousand dollars collected to be spent in the election will suffice to make him a millionaire. He will be a millionaire tomorrow and yet again tomorrow, to please those who are awfully afraid in the fear that their own little interests may be affected by moving heaven and earth to keep him from taking the good things that offer to him.

and represented by paid agents of the trusts who have axes to grind.

For our part we must confess that, numerous as are the aspects of duopoly entering into the present opposition campaign, we have not looked for anything so abominable as a proposal to make the Borden-Houssier alliance, and only to be compared to the occasion of the great strike of 1902, when a student street scrummage in Montreal set the entire city and a violent one.

Fortunately the farmer is not quite such a fool as the Borden-Houssier alliance. He cannot be bought with the promise of ten thousand dollars made by people who are always offering to help him out of his difficulties part and part.

The time for the farmer's turn is now and neither the ten thousand dollars nor the ten thousand dollars so collected to be spent in the election will suffice to make him a millionaire. He will be a millionaire tomorrow and yet again tomorrow, to please those who are awfully afraid in the fear that their own little interests may be affected by moving heaven and earth to keep him from taking the good things that offer to him.

PROPERTY SALE FARM PROPERTY.

Pursuant to the judgment and final order for sale in the action of Ruby Star, who is trying to lay claim to the land in the name of the Dominion, we are to inform you that the following are extracts from the article in the weekly edition of the same paper.

It is thought that the man must have spent his youth catching bulldogs with a piece of red flannel and a hook, and that he has been a bulldogger all his life, the farmer with that of the front.

Nevertheless the appeal to the farmer to deny himself a turn, it would seem, is futile. It was vain to try to make the enemies of reciprocity recognize that the natural resources of the earth are the property of all men.

There is a long house with shingle roof, 21 ft. by 21 ft.

The land is situated 2 1/2 miles from Morinville, 1/2 mile from the Morinville Railway Station.

The property is subject to a reserve bid fixed by a Judge of the Supreme Court of Alberta.

The property is required to pay down ten (10) per cent. of the balance in sixty days without interest.

In other respects the standing conditions of the sale.

The Zandrank and Zandrank and "bits of money" will teach him how; but only after he has given away the ten thousand dollars collected to be spent in the election will suffice to make him a millionaire.

This new found interest in the farmer and his turn is very touching, especially when it crops out in the form of a loan to the farmer to buy him some land.

Those who proclaim the near-divine right of the manufacturer to be ready to throw the implement makers to the winds are and what a brilliant conception, this idea of brilliant farmers rejecting reciprocity and instead insisting on a free agricultural movement, and if reciprocity be beaten we shall press this policy, week in and week out, on the new government.

LAVA SWEEPS ALL BEFORE IT

Sicilian Peasants Erect Crosses in Hope of Stopping Flow.

Catania, Sicily, Sept. 14.—The river of lava from Mount Etna still is sweeping across the land to the sea, and people have been driven from their homes. Hoping to arrest the flow, the peasants erect before their vineyards and olive groves crosses of stone, and place on them the names of the saints and the names of their families.

Crowds of peasants gather to kneel and beat their breasts, calling for help, and asking that this may not be the last year of their punishment.

Archbishop of Catania has gone to the scene to comfort the victims.

Cardinal Rampolla, a relative of Cardinal Rampolla, has been over the scene, and the Pope has sent a telegram to the Vicar Apostolic.

Thousands of peasants have come here, the bed of which is now sixty feet deep. The entire crest of the mountain has been washed away, and great distances ranged elevations have appeared.

The house of Lampilla, a relative of Cardinal Rampolla, has been over the scene, and the Pope has sent a telegram to the Vicar Apostolic.

JASPER HOUSE IS IN DANGER OF COLLAPSE

EDMONTON.—The fall term of the district court opens Tuesday, September 19, with a number of criminal cases scheduled for trial.

A list containing 74 names of applicants for naturalization papers was posted in the supreme court this morning.

The auxiliaries of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church of Edmonton and Strathcona will hold a rummage sale the third week in October.

Of the many reported typhoid cases received at the city hospital, two have proved upon investigation to be either of a milder form or else the patients were too young in character and easily confused with typhoid fever, their earlier stages.

Charged with receiving stolen goods for an auto, James J. O'Dwyer, a son of one of the most prominent business men in the city, has been given a trial date of October 12. He is accused of having received $250 from a man who was engaged in the manufacture of auto parts.

PROTECTED HER INNOCENCE.—Protecting her innocence of the offense of which she was accused by the signature of her former employer is attached, Anna Gruenberg, aged 16, has been granted bail of $1,000. Bail lay at the municipal police barracks on the 12th street side of the building turned over to R. V. Chadwick, superintendent of delinquent children, to do what he can to get the girl out of the circumstances. The girl is accused of having sold $100 worth of and a few articles of minor value from the same shop, in whose family she has lived for some time recently. She denied the charge.

100,000 IN 12 YEARS

L. L. Swart, who represents an oil company, has come to Edmonton from Nels, is making one of his periodical visits to Edmonton, among the numerous oil companies he has been visiting to this city for the past twelve years, making a trip regularly to Alberta here. Meantime he has been given a good name in the city. Each time he came Mr. Swart has noted marked improvement over his previous visit. He says there is no limit to the possibilities of a great city like Edmonton in the coming twelve years, more so because he expects that Edmonton will have a population of 100,000 at least. The young expects to remain in the city for several days.

VISITOR FROM ILLINOIS.

Edmonton has a new and a strong one in the person of Charles A. Denison, a lawyer from Aurora, Ill., who has been here about a week. He arrived last night and is a guest at the Queen's Hotel. He has been here to see the growth of the city during the past twelve years, making a trip regularly to Alberta here. Meantime he has been given a good name in the city. Each time he came Mr. Denison has noted marked improvement over his previous visit. He says there is no limit to the possibilities of a great city like Edmonton in the coming twelve years, more so because he expects that Edmonton will have a population of 100,000 at least. The young expects to remain in the city for several days.

TWO CRIME ACTIONS.

Judge Taylor again considered judgment in two civil cases which have been pending in the district court for the past month. In the first case the plaintiff was entitled to judgment in the amount of $1,000 against Mr. Publishing Co. against J. E. Landy and J. S. Knowles for $15,000. The action was brought for the printing done on January 1, 1909, for the Alberta Citizen newspaper. Pet Stock Associates, of whom Mr. Landy was vice-president and a member of the board, were defendants. Mr. Knowles a member of the managing committee. The latter disclaimed knowing anything about the printing, and therefore declined to pay the amount.

In the suit of Anna Sulpus against John E. Landy, involving a dispute over a debt of $100, Judge Landy found for the plaintiff.

AN EXPENSIVE CELEBRATION.

A large and elaborate dinner was held at a rather expensive affair for Jacob Kallistow, a man who had been victimized in the district court at Vegreville of assault on Peter Ondra, and Judge Taylor, who was present in the case, imposed a fine of $15. Kallistow was sentenced to a term of spending three months in jail, but he had the privilege of serving it at home.

From the effects of the violent meeting between the two men, Kallistow suffered damage to his teeth, in fact, so severe that he had to have them extracted. He was treated with heat and a quantity of beer, which he said he had to drink to ease the pain. In view of the fact that 50 per cent. alcohol had been added to the beer, he was compelled to confess that Kallistow became so confused that even the most sparing of the strong stuff.

Cured from the effects of the violent meeting, Kallistow was able to continue his festivities, in which he participated with heartily, a quantity of beer being added to the beer, which he said he drank two glasses. He did not say whether he had to drink that.

Judge Taylor also tried the case of Wasyk, who was charged with shooting on May 10, 1910, in Vegreville. The evidence was to the effect that he was in a conviction, and the action was dismissed.

Emulations Give Way and Building Settles—Large Section of Brick Wall Falls Away—Contractor Honored that Building May Be Purchased.

The foundation weakened by excavation work carried out on the neighboring lot, the rear portion of the Jasper House, on Jasper Avenue, settled and sank in such a manner that the entire building now lies low yesterday, and for a time, was thought to be in danger of complete collapse.

The trouble became visible shortly after the completion of the Gothic block, which they are erecting on the site immediately west of the Jasper House. When it was completed, the bottom of the foundations of the building, which is the rear portion of the Jasper House, gave way.
